Sir:-

On the 6th Sept. we mailed you our N.Y. draft for $20. and re requested that you send us the amount in pennies.

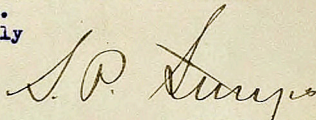

Under date of the 12th Sept. you wrote us acknowledging receipt of our remittance and stated that the order would be filled in about a week.

We have heard nothing further from you nor have we received the pennies.

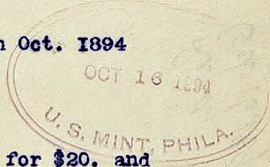

The National Bank of Pendleton, now in the hands of a Receiver, received twenty dolls. in pennies, which I presume are ours but the Receiver has sold the pennies and our customer needs the small coin.

Please forward us the $20. in pennies.

Very Respectfully

Cash.
